NOTES FROM THE CHURCH MOUSE

I woke up a couple of days ago and thought that I had slept right through to Winter and skipped Autumn. I found out otherwise when I peeked out the window to discover that the majority of leaves were still green - only a few had started to change. I am not ready for these cold temperatures though.

There is still not much going on here in the Parish House. I do hear the kiddies downstairs from time to time but not often since I'm two stories away. The guys are here for coffee & chores on Saturday mornings. It would be appreciated though if they could manage to drop a few more crumbs upon occasion.

I did hear a rumor that Cindy Bell and her husband are (or will be) selling their house in Brandon with the hope of moving closer to us here. I hope all things go well.

I also heard that there is a poll in the works to see when people will be coming back to church. I do miss everyone so much.

Well, I'm closing for now so Kris can have this as soon as she comes back from vacation.
God Bless everyone.
